About the Lebanese Muslim Association

The LMA has been in operation since 1962 and has grown to be a nationally recognised representative service provider with over 1,000 members and over 400 initiatives and events.

Its reach has grown to include a vast spectrum of communities and networks from across NSW, including having three mosques and partnerships with a number of stakeholders and sponsors.
It is most prominently associated with being the caretaker of Lakemba Mosque, one of the largest Mosque's in Australia.

CLIENT SERVICES PROGRAM

This project is funded by the Australian Government

About Thrive Client Services

The Lebanese Muslim Association provides settlement support to humanitarian entrants and vulnerable migrants of all ages during the first 5 years of settlement in Australia through Thrive – Client Services.

This Program aims to provide humanitarian entrants and new arrivals with the tools and skills they require to navigate the Australian social system and local communities through low to medium intensity case work.

Our Key Services

Our program is dedicated to supporting and empowering newly arrived migrants through nine key areas.

- Education and Training
- Language Services
- Employment Pathways
- Health and Wellbeing
- Family and Social Support
- Civic Participation
- Housing
- Transport
- Justice

Our program offers casework support which assesses the holistic needs of clients and provides them with effective referrals so that they can achieve their needs and goals in the nine key areas.

Who is Eligible?

Our service is available to people of diverse cultures and faith. Clients must be newly arrived, having lived in Australia for 5 years or less, and must be living, working or studying within the Canterbury Bankstown area.
